3. Authority

The partners of the Partnership, all of whom have signed this mandate as authorised signatories, agree that a banking relationship will be maintained with National Westminster Bank Plc (the Bank) in accordance with this mandate and that:

- the individuals identified as authorised signatories may, in accordance with the signing rules:
  - sign cheques and give instructions for Standing Orders, Direct Debits, electronic payments, banker's drafts and other payments on the accounts even if it causes an account to be overdrawn or exceed any limit
  - sign, accept or endorse bills of exchange
  - request and give counter indemnities for the issue of letters of credit or Guarantees (including bonds, indemnities and undertakings)
- Authorised signatories identified in the signing rules for unlimited amounts may, in accordance with the signing rules:
  - sign facility agreements for overdrafts or the issue of letters of credit or Guarantees
  - sign agreements for electronic products, including payment systems, and appoint or remove administrators and operators of those electronic products. The Partnership authorises the administrators and operators to exercise the powers detailed in the terms of each electronic product. These powers may be extensive and include the power to make payments and access information on behalf of the Partnership, and in the case of administrators, the power to appoint and remove other administrators (with the same powers) and operators
- any authorised signatory may give other instructions or requests for information to the Bank in relation to the accounts; opening accounts with the same signing rules and authorised signatories; closing accounts; or other banking services or products
- each partner (and for a Scottish partnership, the legal person that is the partnership from time to time) is jointly and severally liable for the Partnership's obligations to the Bank
- the Bank may accept instructions that do not have an original written signature provided the Bank is satisfied that the instruction is genuine and subject to any other agreement the Bank may require for those instructions
- this mandate will continue, even if a partner ceases to be a partner or a new partner joins the partnership or there is a change in the constitution or name of the partnership, until withdrawn in writing by any partner, or the Partnership gives a replacement mandate
- the Partnership will immediately notify the Bank in writing if any individual ceases to be a partner
